The Cypress Creek YMCA dedicates its new youth center to the Shindeldecker Family

April 18, 2009 - The YMCA of Greater Houston held a ceremony at their Cypress Creek facility to dedicate the Shindeldecker Family Youth Center. Located at 19915 Texas 249, the center is named after the late David C. Shindeldecker who was chairman, president and CEO of The Redstone Companies.

As a member of the Cypress Creek YMCA since 1982 David participated in programs with his children and enrolled them in youth sports. As a board member since 1988, David chaired numerous committees including its capital campaign. The dedication ceremony acknowledged the Shindeldecker's contribution and involvement with the facility and its programs.

In addition, for his community service and for exemplifying the YMCA's highest ideals, David was previously honored in 2007 with the David D. Allen Award, the highest honor given by the YMCA of Greater Houston.
